ERASMUS STAFF TRAINING

ABOUT IMOTION

The Integration and Promotion of Staff Training Courses at Universities across Europe (IMOTION) project is a oneyear initiative approved for funding in October 2013 under the European Commission's Lifelong Learning Programme. The project is coordinated by UNICA - Network of Universities from the Capitals of Europe.

THE OBJECTIVES OF IMOTION ARE:

- To achieve a better promotion and increase the quality of Erasmus staff training events;
- To involve administrative and technical staff members of different units such as International Relations Offices, PR and Communication, Finance and Accounting, ICT, Research and Development, Human Resources, Libraries and Learning Centres, Academic and Student Affairs, Placements and Career Guidance Centres;
- To internationalise universities by inviting experts or staff members with specific profiles.

IMOTION PLATFORM

- Promotes staff training activities for university administrative and technical staff;
- Allows Organisers to get feedback from the participants of their events;
- Supports university administrative and technical staff finding colleagues for job shadowing;
- Supports staff members that apply for training.

WHO SHOULD JOIN THE PLATFORM?

- Universities organising staff trainings;
- University staff interested in training or job shadowing;
- Experts interested in contributing to staff training.

HOW DOES IT WORK?
