

ERASMUS STAFF WEEK

UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW, JUNE 17-21, 2024

INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION & COMPETENCES TRAINING

The training will take the format of a workshop, conducted by professional coaches. It will be a great opportunity to exchange ideas and share examples of good practices with colleagues from other universities.

Participants will be asked to choose one of the two workshops during the registration process:

- ✓ Intercultural competences workshop - an interactive workshop on the cultural determinants of behavior in various social/professional situations in order to prepare yourself for better cooperation with students, employees, institutional partners from all over the world.
- ✓ Intercultural communication and academia –the main aim of the training is to familiarize participants with the most important theories and practical tools that facilitate work in a multicultural environment, especially in a higher education environment.
