

Dear Colleagues,

It is our pleasure to invite you to the “4th Erasmus International Week” organized by Afyon Kocatepe University, which will take place between 18th and 21st of April 2016, under the Erasmus Exchange programme for both Teaching Staff and Staff Training mobilities.

We would be happy to welcome colleagues from all departments and other associated fields of work. Both the host organization and the event participants will give a presentation about their institutions, or present good experiences regarding expectations from Erasmus+, Higher Education, opportunities for students, staff and trainees cooperation between institutions, business, cooperation outside the EU, adult education, joint degree programs (Master’s or PhD’s), use of technology in teaching and learning, experiences of cultural interactions, interesting popular topics on tourism, engineering, veterinary, fine arts, medicine and so on. Moreover, you will share and distribute the documents about your university during the coffee breaks. Therefore we would highly appreciate presentations from the participants. The language of the International Week is English.

“Afyon Kocatepe University will offer the social program, lunches and gala dinner for the event participants. You will get great discount for accommodation from five stars Thermal Resort & SPA *”.

If you are interested in participating in this event, please send us the Application Form by e-mail. The deadline for applying is 25th of March 2016. You will get your invitation letter by 30th of March 2016.

Below as well as attached please find a preliminary program of this event.

Please be so kind and pass on this invitation to your departments and to other academic teaching staff that might be interested in participating.

Best Wishes,
