

JUNE
25th - 28th

History and culture of the Spanish language in Spain and its use in the ELE classroom (Teaching of Spanish as a foreign language)

In this course, students will explore, examine and gain an in-depth understanding of key elements of Spain's culture, history and heritage - and learn how to use what they learn to teach Spanish as a foreign language.

OBJECTIVES

- To study recent major milestones in the history and culture of Spain.
- To explore the most important of Spain's cultural events, festivals and traditions.
- To learn about monuments and events in Spain declared to be part of world heritage by UNESCO.
- To obtain information in the field for use in the final project.
- To create and present a multimedia resource for use in the Spanish language classroom.

METHOD

The course instructors will lead the students through learning experiences using the project-based learning approach. In this approach, the learning outcome will be the final project, which will determine the nature of the prior tasks.

The instructors will employ the learning-by-doing approach throughout, presenting the students with stimulating tasks and challenges, and engaging them in learning through debate, active participation and teamwork.
