

Invitation

2nd International Staff Days for Health Professionals

With focus on: interprofessional learning and innovative learning methods

19th March to 22nd March 2018

@University of Applied Sciences for Health Professions Upper Austria in Linz

General Information

It is our pleasure to invite you to our second „International Staff Days for Health Professionals“ at the University of Applied Sciences for Health Professions Upper Austria in Linz.

The staff days will take place from 19th to 22nd March 2018
Registration deadline: 31st January 2018

The aim of the event is to bring together staff from different health professions from our partner universities as well as from new potential partner institutions. There will be a limited number of participants.

After a selection process we will let you know about your participation.

Objectives of the week are

- share best practices of international work in the health professions- specially on the topic „interprofessional learning and innovative learning methods“
- strengthen and develop international cooperations and networks with focus on health professions
- individual meetings with our health departments

We welcome staff from HEIs with background in health like academic staff, international coordinators and staff from international offices with an health profession background.

Participation in an active way

We encourage you to participate in an active way. For Tuesday, 20th March 2018 you will have the possibility to present examples of interprofessional learning and innovative learning methods (approx. 15 minutes). With your application you can send us your suggestions for a best practice presentation. Since there are limited time slots, we will make a selection after the registration deadline and let you know.

Additionally we ask you to bring posters created by academic staff or by students, which aim at the mentioned topic. We will have a poster presentation during lunch time on Tuesday, 20th March 2018.

There will be also possibilities for presenting leaflets, flyers and information about your university.
