

Welcome to Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

With faculties such as Architecture and Urbanism, Civil Engineering, Art and Design and Media, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar has a distinctive identity. Today, the University offers an extensive spectrum of instruction with about 40 courses of study, including fine art, design, visual communication, media design, media studies, architecture, civil engineering, materials science, processing technology, environment and management. The term »Bauhaus« stands for an eagerness to experiment, openness, creativity, a close link to industrial practice and internationality.

The town of Weimar

The Stifterverband für die Deutsche Wissenschaft and the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) have distinguished Bauhaus-Universität Weimar as »The International University of 2011«. The jury explained that »at Bauhaus-Universität Weimar, being international is heartfelt.«

Weimar is situated right in the middle of Thuringia, the »green heart of Germany«, and is about 300 km away from both Berlin and Frankfurt. Today, Weimar is a lively town with about 65.000 inhabitants and a town centre where you can reach everything within 10 minutes of walking. Besides Goethe, Schiller, and Bauhaus, Weimar has much to offer for art- and culture-enthusiasts, revellers, lovers of nature and gourmets. There are more than 20 museums, 3 cinemas, theatres, student clubs, concerts and various cultural events such as the traditional folk event, the »Zwiebelmarkt«. Not to forget all the Thuringian delicacies like »Bratwurst« and »Rostbrätel«. We wish you a pleasant stay in Weimar!
