

Upna International Staff Week 2016: Mentoring at Universities

The Public University of Navarre invites staff from European Universities to an International Staff Training Week from May 30th to June 3rd 2016, focused on Mentoring at Universities.

This year, our International Staff Week aims to be a meeting place to share knowledge and exchange best practices in the mentoring area. The five day program we have organized consists of conferences, workshops, networking opportunities, presentations and social events. We shall be most happy to share with you our practices and expect active participation from our visitors in the planning and conduction of the workshops and meetings.

Application

Please fill in the application form as soon as possible and no later than May 5th.

Selection of Applicants

The program is mainly targeted to:

- Staff whose job involves working in the mentoring programs area.
- Staff from institutions planning to establish a mentoring program.

Beneficiaries

Selected applicants will receive an official notification no later than May 9th. We will also send to them useful information as regards accommodation, travel, etc.

Cost

We do not charge any participation fee but visitors will cover their own expenses for travel, accommodation, meals and other extras.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for any further information at:
