

Dear colleagues,

The University of Aveiro (UA) in Portugal would like to invite you to participate in our 1st International Week that will take place from 18 to 22 May 2020.

UA's International Week is open to academic and administrative staff of HEI.

The objective of this International Week is to provide an opportunity to personally meet colleagues from other HEI, foster cooperation, share good practices and discuss current topics on various fields of knowledge.

The motto of our 1st International Week will be "Building Internationalization Together", and special emphasis will be given to contributions on internationalization at home, managerial and societal implications of internationalization, HEI cooperation in international networks, innovative educational approaches in international contexts, as well as applied research and discussion of joint projects in the numerous scientific areas offered by UA.

Participants will be involved in a diversity of academic activities and social events, with a unique opportunity to explore Portuguese culture, history and traditions, while enjoying one of the world's top ranked cuisines.

The International Week will have a 50€ fee that includes 2 dinners, 1 lunch and the cultural activities. Participants should cover their own travel and accommodation costs, together with some meals.

The International Week will have two tracks: training or teaching. When registering for the week, you will be asked to choose your mobility mission, accordingly. The official language will be English.

We invite you to consult the preliminary agenda. A final programme and detailed information on UA's 1st International Week "Building Internationalization Together" will be available to participants until February 15, 2020.

To apply, please fill out the application form by November 30, 2019.

Feel free to share this Call with anyone who might be interested in applying for it.

If you have any questions or need other information, please contact us!

We are all looking forward to welcoming you at the University of Aveiro!