

INVITATION

Dear partners and colleagues, the Vice-President for International Affairs Jade University Of Applied Sciences, Prof. Dr. Uwe Weithöner, and the Head of our International Office, Ms. Andrea Menn, are pleased to invite you and your colleagues to take part in the International Week "Together is better" at Jade University from 23rd to 27th April 2019.

We would like to welcome teaching staff and non-teaching staff to offer guest lectures, to present their home universities and to take part in a workshop on the development of internationalisation aims and strategies, job-shadowing sessions and exciting social events.

You will have the possibility to meet colleagues from different departments, to get an insight into their working areas as well as their current international projects and to take part in lectures. Also, we would be very happy if you offered lectures yourself. Please contact your colleagues in our departments or ask us from the International Office for detailed arrangements. (If you are an Erasmus+ partner, we will be happy to sign a staff mobility agreement for teaching or for training.)

Furthermore, we will meet for lunch and dinner in order to refresh our contacts or to find new partners.

Also, you will have the possibility to get to know our three study locations and their surroundings as well as the beautiful East Frisian Island Langeoog.

With this invitation we would like to consolidate our fruitful cooperation and offer an interesting international and intercultural learning experience.

A more detailed programme overview and practical information will be sent to you as soon as possible.

The following is the preliminary schedule:

Tuesday	23 rd April	Arrival and International Evening
Wednesday	24 th April	Official opening of the International Week Welcome Presentations of the participating universities Workshop on the development of internationalisation aims and strategies Job-shadowing for administrative staff
