ENGAGE: FOSTERING COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT IN HIGHER EDUCATION FOR DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION

Draft Program

/ 14.10.2024, Monday

Official welcome, followed by two keynote lectures. First workshop focuses on problems of practice in higher education. The day concludes with an opening dinner.

/ 15.10.2024, Tuesday

Explore community engagement through the lens of DEIA (Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility). This session highlights meaningful participation and accountability in community engagement strategies.

/ 16.10.2024, Wednesday

Develop action plans for community engagement. Activities include practical exercises, presentations, and group feedback.

/ 17.10.2024, Thursday

Participate in a community engagement activity on water hydration! A city tour and a social dinner conclude the evening.

/ 18.10.2024, Friday

Interested participants can opt to join the Erasmus+ Day celebration, or the discussion on publication opportunities on the workshop theme.

Workshop Organizer and Co-Facilitator

Rosalyn Eder is the Head of the International Office at Paracelsus Medical University in Salzburg, Austria. She has more than fifteen years of experience in global higher education, and is a member of the EAIE's thematic committee on social responsibility. Her research examines policy and practice in global higher education through the critical lens of social equity. At the PMU, she spearheads the ENGAGE Initiative, which serves as a framework for the International Office's efforts.

Lead Facilitator

Roland Sintos Coloma, a Professor of Teacher Education at Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan, USA, is a leading expert on cultural politics in education. His research explores race, class, gender, and sexuality through historical, intersectional, and transnational lenses. With a publication record that includes four books and over 40 articles, he has secured over $3 million in external funding for teacher preparation and community initiatives.
