

ERASMUS+ COURSE FOR HIGHER EDUCATION STAFF

LECTURE EFFECTIVELY IN ENGLISH

This course aims to give you essential tips for preparing and delivering engaging and effective lectures.

COURSE OUTLINE

This course will examine different lecturing styles and consider how to structure a lecture to maximise engagement. Topics covered include the importance of signposting and pacing, using engaging visual aids and how to employ nonverbal communication.

As a practical task, you will participate in and analyze a demonstration lecture, considering how to implement these principles into your own teaching practice.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Overall objectives of the mobility

- Adapt the principles of CLIL (Content and Language Integrated Learning) to aid with lecturing in English to international learners
- Practice essential academic grammar: conjunctions, conditionals, interrogative phrasing
- Explore different lecturing styles: reading, conversational, rhetorical
- Structuring lectures: introductions, key points, and conclusions
- Finding the right register: formal, informal, consultative
- Signposting key points and important concepts
- Using visual aids and non-verbal communication to convey information

Added value of the mobility

Participants will consider how to effectively prepare and structure lectures, paying special attention to delivering information effectively through the medium of English.

Activities to be carried out

Skills focused workshops to develop materials

Feedback sessions to reflect on participant's own materials, while also sharing knowledge and skills. Participants are directed towards online resources to further develop their training.

Cultural and heritage trips as part of a chaperoned group.

Expected outcomes and impact

This course provides a professional development opportunity for participants which looks at strategies for lecturing successfully through the medium of English. Through various activities, participants are invited to share knowledge and skills acquired with their colleagues. The opportunity to experience new cultural contexts and network with international colleagues is a further positive outcome.

CULTURAL PROGRAMME

The courses are delivered in Atlantic Centre of Education in Galway on Ireland's 'Wild Atlantic' Coast, and participants will have ample opportunity to learn about the cultural heritage of both Ireland and the local area. The programme includes a full-day cultural tour to a local area of scenic and heritage value, a guided historical walking tour of Galway city, and afternoon social and cultural activities. Our staff are happy to suggest other tours and events to enjoy during your stay in Galway.

Suitable for:

Professors, lecturers, teachers or doctoral students – who lecture through English to international student groups.
