International Staff and Teaching Week

Digitalisation in the University Context

The 2nd edition of UPSA's International Staff and Teaching Week will take place under the topic of "Digitalisation in the University Context" and is open to academic and administrative staff from all university services. Academic staff from the following areas can apply:

Health Sciences (Nursing, Speech Therapy, Physiotherapy), Psychology, Communication (Marketing, Public Relations, Journalism, Audiovisual Communication), Education, Sport Sciences, Computer Sciences, Business Informatics, Business Administration, International Relations, Law, Philosophy, Theology, Canon Law.

Academic staff will have the opportunity to teach UPSA students and to connect with international teachers from the same research area. Administrative staff will have the opportunity to do a job shadowing and to exchange best practices in an international context.

International Staff and Teaching Week

Application

Both academic and administrative staff must apply through our application form.

Additional information for academic staff

Academic staff should submit one or more lecture proposals as well as their research profile. Teaching units can be held either in English or Spanish.

Academic staff is expected to teach 8 hours during the week to meet the Erasmus+ funding requirements for teaching mobility.

Why have an international week with us?

Our university is located in Salamanca, one of the most beautiful cities in Spain, and recognised as UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Pontifical University of Salamanca has its roots in the 13th century, when the collaboration between the Pope and the King gave rise to an institution capable of bringing together knowledge about man, society, nature, history and God. UPSA was founded in 1940 to restore the faculties of Theology and Canon Law, excluded from Spanish university classrooms in 1852.

Today it is one of the best universities in Spain in terms of academic performance and job placement, and has been ranked among the TOP 3 Spanish universities in Teaching and Learning in the CYD ranking.
