

International Staff Mobility for Training days in Ventspils

25-27 April, 2016

Welcome to Ventspils – one of the fastest growing cities and one of the most popular tourist destinations in Latvia. Ventspils is green and blooming. Citizens of Ventspils have their own language, flag, time zone, and money – vents, which can be used at various tourism objects.

Ventspils University is higher education establishment and is located in Latvia, in the coast of the Baltic sea. Ventspils University offers to achieve knowledge in study programmes in the following specialities: business management, languages and intercultural communication, translation/interpreting and linguistics, computer science and electrical engineering.

For us very important is not only delivering knowledge to students but also research work in our scientific institutions.
