

STAFF TRAINING WEEK

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

24 - 28 June 2024
UNIVERSITY OF BOLOGNA

Old and new Challenges for Librarians

This Staff Training Week will be an opportunity to discuss how some of the traditional services offered by Academic Libraries are undergoing a process of transformation and how new services are being developed, due to external and internal factors pushing toward new visions of the role of Libraries and Librarians.

The Staff Training Week is addressed to University Librarians familiar or interested in one or more of the following topics:

- Cooperative services: Participating or Coordinating national/regional/Inter-University/Intra-university services (OPACs, Digital Libraries, Discovery Tools etc.)
- Information literacy: The service of the information landscape, including open science and artificial intelligence
- Cultural heritage: The role of libraries for the digitisation and the sharing of FAIR data
